CLASS POEM

Of This Year's Graduates Written by
Miss Mary Page Maltby of Washington.

The Class of 1916.

The day of parting comes at last,
For thro' the M. H. S. they've passed,
A class which bore mid storm and strife

A banner with a loved device,

"16."

The Seniors all have done their share
To make this class beyond compare,
And many honors they have won
Because such mighty stunts they've done.

"16."

And when you hear their deeds of fame
And see the roll of learned name,
Perhaps they'll soar among the stars
And laugh and chat with planet Mars.

"16."

In Civics they have fought and bled
Until the room with gore was red,
In English they the chestnut had,
Was Shakespeare's "Hamlet" really mad?

"16."

In German we with Reinhardt groaned,
With love-sick Mailli wept and moaned,
The faithful Six in Latin dug,
Old Virgil was a mighty tug.

"16."

Adelphics and Athenaeus cried—
"Greece!" "Rome!" And told how
Brutus died!

Great tongues of fire they did release,
That shouted "War," that shouted
"Peace!"

"16."

Juniors, wear your gowns with grace,
For you full soon will take our place;
To classes all we bid goodbye,
Never let our memory die.

"16."

What-e'er to Seniors fate decrees,
What-e'er our lot in life may be
May we be loyal, honest and true,
To self, to friends, to High School too.

HISTORICAL DETAIL

Carefully Carried Out in "The Birth of a Nation" at the Washington Theater Next Friday and Saturday.

"The Birth of a Nation," bringing forward David W. Griffith's new art of musical spectacle, with next Friday evening's performance opens an engagement of two days at the Washington Opera House. The first half of the great picture exhibits the salient events of the Civil War, which came to a close at Appomattox just fifty years ago, Lincoln's call for troops, Sherman's march, the Battle of Petersburg, Lee's Surrender to Grant and the awful tragedy at Ford's Theater live before the spectator of Griffith drama. In the second half the South's "second uprising," this time against the carpeting regime, is shown in a thrilling story of Reconstruction days. The romance of the "little Confederate Colonel," Ben Cameron with the North-erner, Elsie Stoneman, and that of the Unionist Captain, Phil Stoneman, with Margaret Cameron, the South Carolina lassie, maintain two threads of continuous love-interest throughout the story. The fun and frolic of plantation days as well as the heartache and pathos of the stricken South are shown. The great out-of-doors is Mr. Griffith's special field. Great battle scenes and the rides of the clan are staged with thousands of participants. There are 5,000 scenes in the spectacle and (it is estimated) no less than 200,000 interesting historical details. On the musical side Mr. Griffith attempted something previously unheard of in connection with motion pictures. This was the synchronizing of a complete symphonic score with the appearance of the important characters and the enactment of the principal scenes. This instrumental music is played by a large orchestra, and supplemented by part-singing behind the scenes. Somehow the old wartime tunes, thus thematically treated, make the "counterfeit presentments," of long ago seem irresistibly real. Among the leading players in what was probably the largest theatrical cast ever assembled may be mentioned Joseph Hen- berry as President Lincoln; Donald Crisp and Howard Gaye as Generals Grant and Lee; Mae Marsh as Flora Cameron; Henry Falthall, Lillian Gish, Elmer Clifton; Miriam Cooper as the quartet of lovers; Ralph Lewis as Congressman Stoneman; Spottiswoode Aiken and Josephine Crowell as the elder Camerons, and Walter Seligmann as Lynch.

CLASS SONG OF 1916 GRADUATING CLASS

The following is the class song of this year's Senior Class:

ONWARD CLASS OF '16

(Tune—"Onward Christian Soldier.")

Onward, onward go,
May we in life's battle,
Failure never know.
Teachers, friends, and schoolmates,
Greetings one and all!
Class of 1916
May you oft recall.

Onward, class of '16
Onward, onward go,
Onward, class of '16,
Failure never know.—Refrain.

Like a mighty army,
Moves this class of ours,
Class of 1916
Use your best of powers.
Be we not divided,
All one body we,
Ones in hope, ambition,
Ones in charity.—Refrain.

Onward then ye people!
Join our happy throng,
Blend with ours your voices
In our triumph song;
Of our deeds and valor,
Let our schoolmates sing,
Thus thro' countless ages,
May our anthems ring.—Refrain.

The song was composed by Miss Mary Page Maltby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Maltby of Washington. Miss Maltby also composed the class poem.

Yes, brother, we are perfectly willing to fight, bleed and die for our country if it is needed. But we are praying powerful hard that the good Lord will not permit the need.

A man's idea of tough luck is to play poker with a woman and win every time when there's nothing at stake.

HERBERT PARSONS

May Rule Campaign—N. Y. Committee- man Is Tipped as Hughes Manager—Wire From Strauss.

New York, June 13—Herbert Parsons, Republican National Committee- man from New York, will be selected Chairman of the Republican National Committee and campaign manager for Hughes, according to an authentic report tonight.

Mr. Hughes' first visitor today was Mr. Parsons, who has succeeded William Barnes as National Committee- man. Mr. Parsons explained that headquarters would be maintained here for Hughes by the National Committee throughout the campaign. After his departure from the Presidential nomination Mr. Parsons left for Providence.

"The movies are going to be introduced in the campaign for the first time. Pictures of former Justice Hughes will be used in conjunction with extracts from his more notable speeches," Mr. Parsons said arrangements would be made for them at once.

There was a great crush of visitors at the Astor. Among them were L. B. Gleason, Secretary of the National Committee; Supreme Justice Lamar, Henry A. Mark and Jacob Klinek. The Astor has been decorated with flags in honor of Mr. Hughes.

Theodore Douglas Robinson, nephew of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, also called to see Mr. Hughes. He found the nominee away on an automobile ride and said he would return tomorrow.

Another caller who found the candidate out was Everett Colby of New Jersey, who nominated Colonel John M. Parker for Vice-President at the Progressive convention. Mr. Colby told one of Mr. Hughes' secretaries that he had come to pledge his support to the Republican nominee.

The following telegram was received today by Mr. Hughes:

"Cleveland, O., June 13.
"In recognition of your splendid public record and relying on your unflinching stand for a complete and unalloyed Americanism, with a single devotion to the highest welfare of all our people and to the ideals of social justice that has endeared us to the visioned leadership of Theodore Roosevelt, every genuine Progressive should, in my judgment, give you enthusiastic support—you will certainly have mine."
"OSCAR S. STRAUS."

To interviewers today Mr. Hughes defined his attitude toward German-American support as one of "undiluted Americanism." In the first statement issued since his acceptance of the Republican nomination for President he said:

"I stated my position very clearly in my telegram to the convention. My attitude is one of undiluted Americanism, and anybody that supports me is supporting an out-and-out American and an out-and-out American policy, absolutely nothing else."

MAJORITY OF 100,000 FOR HUGHES IN OHIO PREDICTED BY WILLIS

Columbus, O., June 13—That Hughes and Fairbanks will carry Ohio by 100,000 was the prediction made today by Governor Willis, who returned to the State House this morning after spending Sunday with Chicago relatives. He expressed satisfaction over the trend of national politics and declared his belief that Colonel Roosevelt will actively support Hughes.

Among the letters answered today were a number urging the Governor to deliver campaign speeches in other States. In view of his own fight for re-election, these offers were declined. Governor Willis left tonight to attend the G. A. R. encampment at Marion.

TEUTON ORGANIZATION COMES OUT FOR HUGHES

Chicago, June 13—The Teutonic Sons of America through the National Council of the organization today announced the adoption at a meeting here of resolutions felicitating Charles E. Hughes and Charles W. Fairbanks upon their nomination. The resolutions also call upon "all American citizens of Teutonic extraction or sympathy to give their voice and support to the cause of securing the election of Charles E. Hughes to the Presidency and Charles W. Fairbanks to the Vice Presidency of the United States."

PIPE THIS!

Washington, June 13—A constitutional amendment to disqualify Federal Judges from holding any elective office for at least two years after leaving the Bench was introduced today by Senator Thomas, of Colorado, Democrat. Two weeks ago he made a speech in the Senate depreciating the efforts to nominate Charles E. Hughes as a presidential candidate.

URGES SUPPORT FOR HUGHES

Chicago, June 13—John C. Shaffer, owner of daily newspapers and one of the Progressive party leaders in the Middle West, today sent a telegram to Colonel Roosevelt urging him to support Charles E. Hughes for President. He also asked him to decline the presidential nomination of the Progressive party.

MOOSE FOR HUGHES

Denton Harbor, Mich., June 13—J. Mark Harvey, Progressive leader in Michigan, in an open letter, issued today, urged Bull Moose to help defeat Wilson. He declared the "security of the nation and its future status in the world depends on the defeat of the present Administration."

"Since Portugal has lined itself alongside of the warring European nations, the attendance at our schools and churches has fallen off somewhat," writes Methodist Missionary Ray B. Kipp, of Malango, Angola. "All the young men within drafting age seem afraid of meeting the recruiting officers, if they venture outside of their homes."

Belle of Maysville

The most wonderful whisky that ever drove the skeleton from a feast or painted landscapes in the brain of man. It is the mingled souls of wheat and corn. In it you will find the sunshine and the shadow that chased each other over the billowy fields; the breath of June; the carol of the lark; the dew of night; the wealth of summer; and Autumn's rich content—all golden with imprisoned light.

Drink it, and you will hear the voices of men and maidens singing the "Harvest Home" mingled with the laughter of children. Drink it, and you will feel within your blood the star-lit dawns, the dreamy, tawny dusks of many perfect days. For many years this liquid joy has been confined within the happy staves of oak, longing to touch the lips of man.

Yours for, $3.00, $4.00 and $6.00 per gallon. Sold only by
